

Warren County Public Schools
210 North Commerce Avenue
Front Royal, Virginia 22630-4419
Phone (540) 635-2171
Fax (540) 636-4195
HYPERLINK "<http://www.wcps.k12.va.us>"
www.wcps.k12.va.us

Application Process with Warren County Public Schools

Step 1: Search the career opportunities page for a position that interests you. Once you select the position(s) of interest, scroll to the top of the career opportunities page and click on to the following link: <https://wcpsva.tedk12.com/hire/index.aspx> (Or just use the link right here)

Step 2: Several applications are available at the link when you enter our application portal. For clarification, please use the following guidelines when selecting an application to complete:

Maintenance- Use this application for any position related to maintenance

Transportation- Use this application for any position related to transportation

Coach- Use this application for any position related to athletic coaching

Support- Use this application for any position related to an instructional assistant position or any position related to school based or central office support

Professional- Use this application for any position related to a teaching position and any school or central office leadership position

Administrator - Use this application for any position related to an administrator position and any school or central office administrator or director position

Practicum- Use this application for any position related to serving as a student teacher in one of our schools

Volunteer- Use this application to serve in our schools as a volunteer

Step : If you experience any difficulty or have any questions, please contact our director using the information below. We look forward to serving you!

Shane Goodwin
Warren County Public Schools
Director of Personnel and Communication
210 North Commerce Ave.
Front Royal, Virginia 22630
sgoodwin@wcps.k12.va.us

Step 4: One final note... If you see a vacant position that you are interested in and qualified for, please feel free to email the principal of the school and let them know your application has been submitted and you are interested in the position. We all look forward to reviewing your materials and hopefully meeting you soon!

The Warren County School Board is an Equal Opportunity Employer

"Learning through Inspiration, Engagement, Empowerment, and Innovation – Every Student, Every Day"